Central Highlands Community Legal Centre Inc

Be a Member of CHCLC!

Any person or organisation that agrees to support the Statement of Purpose (Philosophy) of CHCLC can be a member. The Statement of Purpose is:

1. To provide a free, readily accessible, community based legal service to disadvantaged residents of The Central Highlands Region.
2. To practice preventative law.
3. To provide legal education to residents
4. To promote law reform
5. To encourage residents who are not legally qualified to be members of the Association's Committee of Management.

Members are invited to our Annual General Meeting, and have the right to vote on any decisions that are made at the Annual General Meeting.

Members have the right to nominate to be a member of CHCLC's Committee of Management, who are the people responsible for making sure CHCLC runs well.

Members also receive a copy of our Newsletter.

If you would like to renew your membership or become a new member please complete the application form overleaf and return along with payment to the Centre.
